Period for Reply

A SHORTENED STATUTORY PERIOD FOR REPLY IS SET TO EXPIRE 3 MONTH(S) FROM THE MAILING DATE OF THIS COMMUNICATION.

- Extensions of time may be available under the provisions of 37 CFR 1.136(a). In no event, however, may a reply be timely filed after SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- If the period for reply specified above is less than thirty (30) days, a reply within the statutory minimum of thirty (30) days will be considered timely.
- If NO period for reply is specified above, the maximum statutory period will apply and will expire SIX (6) MONTHS from the mailing date of this communication.
- Failure to reply within the set or extended period for reply will, by statute, cause the application to become ABANDONED (35 U.S.C. § 133).
- Any reply received by the Office later than three months after the mailing date of this communication, even if timely filed, may reduce any earned patent term adjustment. See 37 CFR 1.704(b).

Status

- 1) ☒ Responsive to communication(s) filed on 06 March 2003.
- 2a) ☒ This action is FINAL. 2b) ☐ This action is non-final.
- 3) ☐ Since this application is in condition for allowance except for formal matters, prosecution as to the merits is closed in accordance with the practice under Ex parte Quayle, 1935 C.D. 11, 453 O.G. 213.

DETAILED ACTION

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 112

1. The following is a quotation of the second paragraph of 35 U.S.C. 112:

The specification shall conclude with one or more claims particularly pointing out and distinctly claiming the subject matter which the applicant regards as his invention.

2. Claims 1-7 are rejected under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, as being indefinite for failing to particularly point out and distinctly claim the subject matter which applicant regards as the invention.

Claim 1 is indefinite. How is the linear approximation carried out.

Claim 6 recites a robot arm structure. The claim merely provides a height of rotation and a swing from that height. The claim is indefinite. There are no elements defining the arm structure for the robot. Further, there are no elements defining any apparatus, wherein the height and swing do not define an apparatus. The terms "about" and "adapted to" are further indefinite in that they do not clearly define that which the applicant is attempting to claim. "Adapted to" does not clearly whether or not the function is performed. Claim 7 suffers for the same reason.

Claim Rejections - 35 USC § 102

3. The following is a quotation of the appropriate paragraphs of 35 U.S.C. 102 that form the basis for the rejections under this section made in this Office action:

A person shall be entitled to a patent unless –

(b) the invention was patented or described in a printed publication in this or a foreign country or in public use or on sale in this country, more than one year prior to the date of application for patent in the United States.

4. Claim 1 is rejected under 35 U.S.C. 102(b) as being anticipated by Gretz et al. (4,967,126).

As recited in claim 1, Gretz et al. disclose a method for designing an arm structure for a robot having an arm which can rotate vertically and forward over a prescribed angle around an axial line extending substantially between two shoulders, comprising the steps of: defining a vertical extent of a region in front of the robot that can be accessed by the arm in a fully extended state (lengths $L1 + L2$; Figure 1); and determining a length of the arm and a height of the axis of rotation of the arm in such a manner that a range of rotational motion of the arm in accessing the region can be covered by a range in which the fore-and-aft distance to the tip of the arm can be linearly approximated as discussed in column 2, line 50 through column 3, line 67.

Allowable Subject Matter

5. Claims 2-5 and 8, would be allowable if rewritten to overcome the rejection(s) under 35 U.S.C. 112, second paragraph, set forth in this Office action and to include all of the limitations of the base claim and any intervening claims.

Response to Arguments

6. Applicant's arguments filed 03/06/2003 have been fully considered but they are not persuasive.

While some of the arguments are persuasive, most are not. Some of the 112 rejections were dropped in view of applicant's arguments. The claims are not fully clear and should be corrected in view of the remaining 112 rejections. Allowability has been indicated to those claims which defined over the art. However, the 112 rejections to the parent or independent claims must be overcome.

7. THIS ACTION IS MADE FINAL. Applicant is reminded of the extension of time policy as set forth in 37 CFR 1.136(a).

A shortened statutory period for reply to this final action is set to expire THREE MONTHS from the mailing date of this action. In the event a first reply is filed within TWO MONTHS of the mailing date of this final action and the advisory action is not mailed until after the end of the THREE-MONTH shortened statutory period, then the shortened statutory period will expire on the date the advisory action is mailed, and any extension fee pursuant to 37 CFR 1.136(a) will be calculated from the mailing date of the advisory action. In no event, however, will the statutory period for reply expire later than SIX MONTHS from the mailing date of this final action.
